

The Burlington Journal

FRIDAY, April 30, 1948

Emergency Funds To Flood Control

The army engineers notified Representative Henry M. Jackson Tuesday, according to word received here, that $50,000 has been allocated from emergency funds for flood control work on the Burlington bend of the Skagit river.

The state will contribute $100,000 to the project while the county will take care of the balance. Work is expected to be started under the direction of army engineers within the next month.