Subject: July 18th Meeting

Dear Working Group members,

Thank you once again for agreeing to participate in the Skagit Flood Risk Management Working Group. As you all know, our first meeting is taking place next Tuesday, July 18th, at the Farmhouse Inn. You all should have received or will be receiving shortly the meeting packet to help prepare you - this packet contains directions to the Farmhouse Inn for those of you who are unfamiliar with its location. We want to remind everyone to please bring their calendars for September so we can plan a date for the next meeting. We look forward to a productive and informative meeting next Tuesday. If you have any questions or concerns before that time, please don't hesitate to call the Lead Facilitator Valerie Lee at 206-525-3362 or e-mail us at staff@envintl.com.
