Opportunity to Comment.

You have five (5) business days from the date of this letter to comment in writing on the request. Specifically, we would appreciate your commenting on release of the information to these particular requesters. In addition, your comments should identify the portions of the requested information that your company believes qualify for CEII protection, including the specific Freedom of Information Act exemption that applies to protect the information. See 5 U.S.C. § 552 (2006). The Commission encourages filers to consider negotiating with the requesters to provide the data directly to the requesters, where appropriate. Please notify the Commission if you elect to provide the information directly to Messrs. Martin and Harmon.

Your comments, if any, may be mailed to the undersigned at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, or facsimile to 202-208-0056. Upon receipt of your response, the CEII Coordinator or his designee will evaluate whether the information qualifies for CEII protection, and, if so, whether the CEII may be released subject to an appropriate non-disclosure agreement. If you submit timely comments opposing release, you will be notified in advance of the release of any information in accordance with 18 C.F.R § 388.112(e) (2006).

Notice of Release.

If you do not submit timely comments opposing release, this letter constitutes notice of release of the specified document(s) in accordance with 18 C.F.R. § 388.112(e) (2006), subject to an appropriate non-disclosure agreement. In the event that you do not oppose release, your documents will be released no sooner than five business days from the date of this letter.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the foregoing, please contact me (202) 502-8585 or e-mail Kathryn.Allen@ferc.gov.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Allen
